

2024 Young Ringer Award for Iwan Cotgreave

This year the Guild gave the Young Ringer Award to Iwan Cotgreave. The trophy was presented at the Surprise Major Practice at Wigton – and it certainly was a surprise for Iwan, especially when his parents turned up to join in the celebrations. The Belles of Lazonby

The success of the 'Belles of Lazonby' has come to the attention of The Cumberland & Westmorland Herald, who recently featured the girls in the paper. Congratulations to these young ringers on their progress and many thanks to Mike Allison and Imogen Carrie for all the work they do to promote bellringing in this area. 'A Grand Day Out' for All Saints Ringers

The Cocker mouth ringers have been out and about again. What a splendid way to spend a day – ringing with friends, followed by a meal to round off the day.

Out and About with the Wombel

Andy Pollock and the Barrow ringers have been promoting the Wombel. Firstly, at the North West Ringing Course at Borwick Hall; and then at 'The Brilliant Barrow weekend'. Andy tells us all about the events here:

Central Council of Church Bell Ringers 2024 Open Meeting

Sunday 1st September 2024 at 8pm, by Zoom – you can have your say on the future of the Central Council finances. The meeting will feature short presentations on Ringing 2030 and the financial proposals. It will then be opened to all participants to give their views on these proposals. The meeting is open all, not just CCCBR representatives. To reserve your place (and join the conversation) send an email to: consultation@cccbr.org.uk
Please include Open Meeting in the title of your email, and also please include your name and location

Andrew Moncrief remembers his Dad

Philip Moncrief was a familiar figure in towers around the Guild, when he accompanied his son, Andrew, to practices and ringing events. Here is Andrew's tribute to his father:
